ABOUT THE STUDIO

Inspired by Benedictine spirituality, the Saint Bede Studio is dedicated to providing dignified, beautiful garments for the Rites of the Roman Catholic Church. The work of the Studio is largely the re-interpretation for modern use of ancient and mediaeval designs.

Vestments are not commodities to us: they are garments made for Sacred purposes. Our vestments are not mass-produced in factories, but are hand-made by Catholics for Catholics, the product of careful attention, prayer and devotion. Great care goes into the selection of fabrics to provide striking beauty, but also ease of use and durability.

In assisting you, we do our best to meet your needs and wishes, but we will also make suggestions to facilitate the best result.

NEW TRANSLATION 1962 ORDO MISSAE

In March 2008, a new translation of the 1962 Ordo Missae was published by the Ignatius Press, San Francisco. This new Mass-book, prepared entirely by the Saint Bede Studio, has a translation into modern,

Triple Tiara of Pope Benedict XVI

At Wednesday's General Audience in the Piazza of Saint Peter's, Pope Benedict was presented with his very own Triple Tiara. Although small scale, it is an admirable tiara, perhaps reminiscent of the tiara of Pope John XXIII. Happily, it tends more to the shape and appearance of the mediaeval tiara than the baroque variety.

Read a bit more about the presentation at John Sonnen's blog.

Were the Pope to wear the tiara, I, for one, wouldn't feel scandalised (call me old-fashioned).
